Margaret - a wonderful girl, who is a great friend & a great summer thing works out O.K. with you. Love you, Mom

Yours
Daddy
O.K.

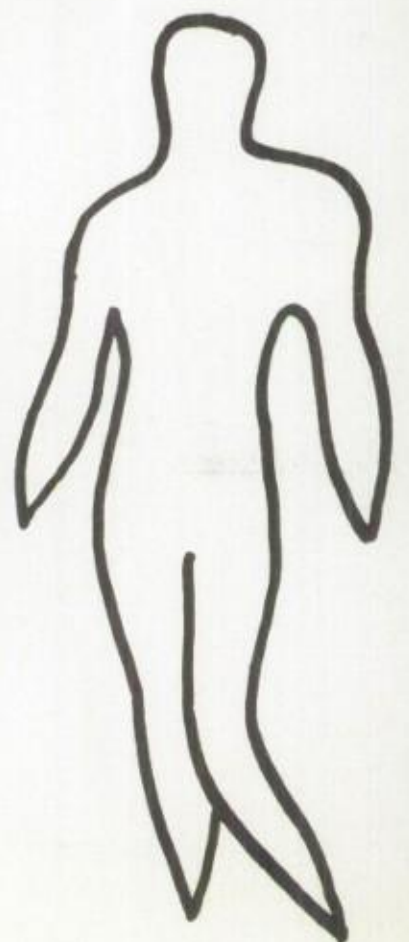

Who am I? Well, I might be called the OBSERVER. I can be found anywhere and everywhere in J.E.B. Stuart. I see all, hear all, know all.

What do I see? Students milling around in the midst of a traffic jam, freshmen dashing to get to calls and knocking down dignified juniors and seniors, the alternating frowns and grins of coaches as they watch the last play of a game, and the precision of the marching band.

What do I hear? Laughter and chatter during lunch hour, teachers talking a mile-a-minute to seemingly deaf ears, voices of the choir filling the auditorium, cheerleaders and fans screaming their lungs out, and the click-click-click of typewriters.

What do I know? The excitement of the first day of school, the panic erupting when semester exams loom only a week away, the frustration of the newspaper and year-book staffs in trying to meet the deadline, term paper-itis, the confusion and furor of the halls, the hushed atmosphere of after school hours which is interrupted by an occasional flurry of activity, the fun of the Junior-Senior Prom and the significance and thrill of graduation.

Observing J.E.B. Stuart in its everyday diversities -
Some important, some trivial; some serious, some gay; some . . .

We Dedicate the 1962
SABRE to Mr. Thomas D. Todd

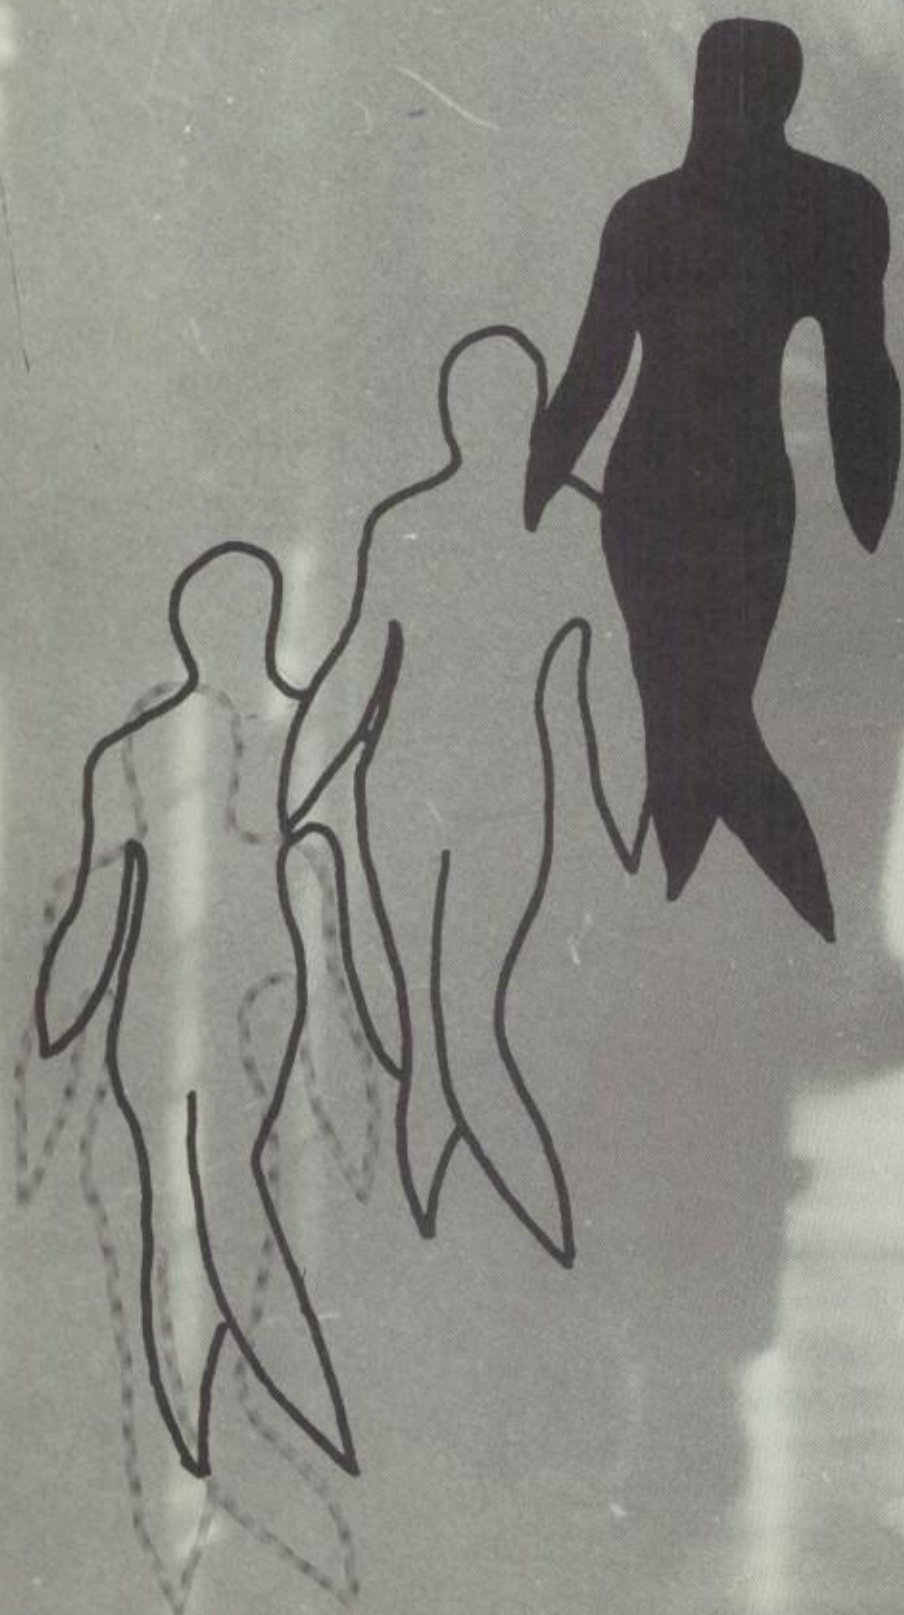

Foreword

The purpose of the 1962 SABRE is to present J.E.B. Stuart in all its aspects and phases; to present its achievements in scholarship athletics, drama, and music, to show the active participation of students in serving the school and community, to portray the school spirit, and to present the traditions which will become the starting point for future developments and experiences.

Mr. W. Leon Mason

Principal

To the students.

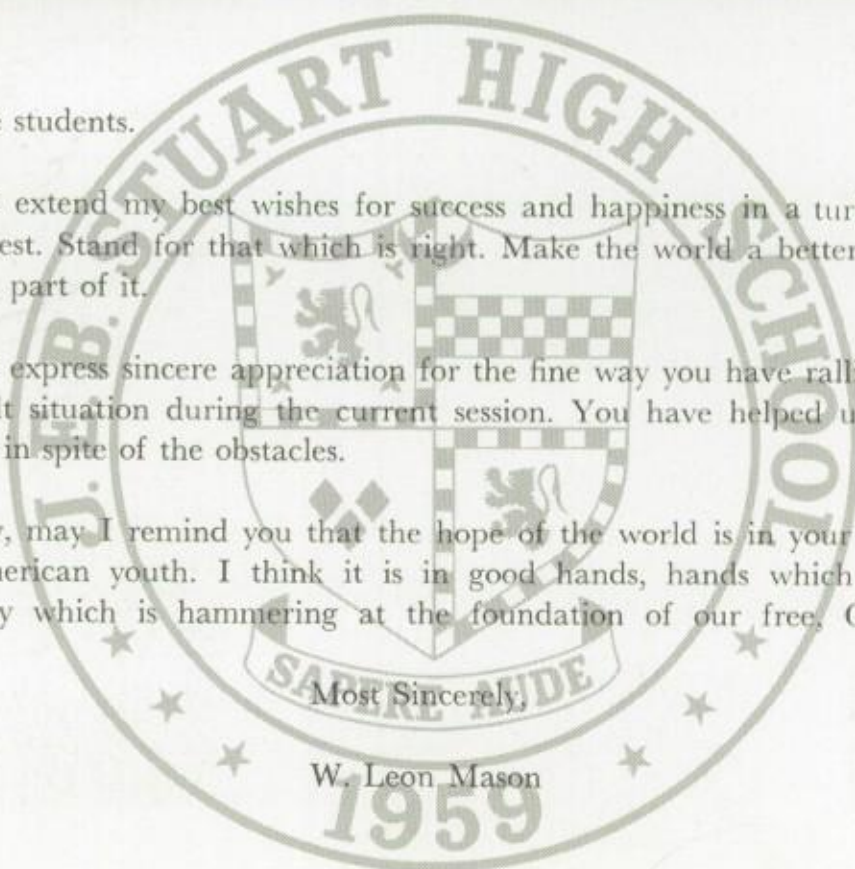

May I extend my best wishes for success and happiness in a turbulent world. Do your best. Stand for that which is right. Make the world a better place for having been a part of it.

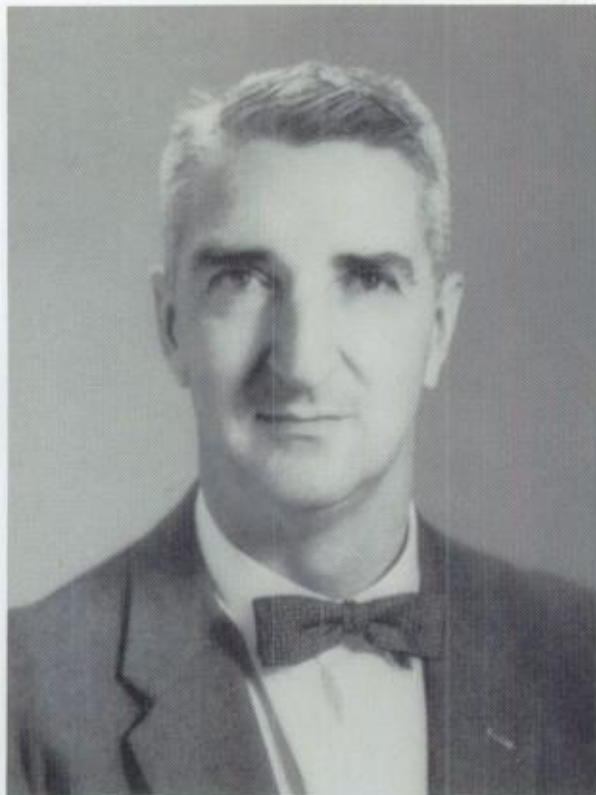

May I express sincere appreciation for the fine way you have rallied to overcome a difficult situation during the current session. You have helped us maintain a fine school in spite of the obstacles.

Finally, may I remind you that the hope of the world is in your hands, the hands of American youth. I think it is in good hands, hands which will throttle the tyranny which is hammering at the foundation of our free, God-given society.

Most Sincerely,

W. Leon Mason

First Exchange Student Enters Stuart

Eckhard Bunning, eighteen year old senior from Dusseldorf, Germany, is J.E.B. Stuart's first exchange student. Nicknamed "Ecky" by his friends, he lives with an American Army family in the Lake Barcroft area.

Margaret,
It's really been fun knowing you this year. We're really not a lot of fun. In the girls room especially. I hate to write in these things cause it always means good-bye. But I hope we see each other this summer.
You + Wally come by + see me whenever you're in the neighborhood. Lots of luck with everything you do + Wally.

Student Council of America

The J. E. B. Stuart High School S.C.A. consists of all regularly enrolled students of the school. It is democratically governed by the Student Council which is composed of the S.C.A. officers, the Senate, and a representative of each homeroom. This year, the S.C.A. has published a Handbook, held a Welcome Dance, sponsored the Christmas Dance, organized the J. E. B. "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, home, and community high standards of Christian character" is the purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y club. It is affiliated with the YMCA.

The new club participated in projects with the aim in mind to help those who are less fortunate. At Christmas, several boxes of food and clothing were given to the Salvation Army to be distributed among needy families. It also has a project in World Service, helping those abroad.

The J.E.B. Stuart Tri-Hi-Y wishes to thank Mrs. Wilson, the sponsor, who gave so much of her time to make the first year a success.

The Keyette Club of J.E.B. Stuart High School proudly bears its banner, "We Serve." It is an honorary service organization affiliated with Keyette National under the sponsorship of the Capitol District Ki-Wives. The Keyette Club prepares young women for useful citizenship by developing qualities of leadership and initiative through service to the school and community.

The major Keyette activities this year were: raking leaves; working as Candy Strippers at Fairfax Hospital; decorating the school Christmas tree; serving as maids for the March of Dimes on Maid and Butler Day; planting ivy around the school; and attending the third annual convention of Keyette National in Norfolk, Virginia.

The Keyettes swear in Mr. Gott on the dictionary. No, it's a joke.

The Kaden Club is in its first year at J.E.B. Stuart. The club supplied food for a Thanksgiving basket which was given to a needy family. The membership of the Kaden Club includes girls from all four grades. The club's sponsor is Miss Stevenson and the president is Gigi Glover.

"Just a shave please." Pam Hynds likes her hair long but most of the customers at the BAILEY'S CROSSROADS PERSONALIZED BARBER SHOP wear theirs in a more conventional manner. Actually most of them are men. Merritt Ruhlen lost his job after 15 minutes but some competent barber will be there to give you expert treatment.

No, Merritt Ruhlen doesn't work at APEX CLEANERS and they won't pull the clothes off your back. But APEX CLEANERS would gladly accept Meredith Grey's and Donna Tyler's clothes. They do expert dry-cleaning and have one hour service. Bailey's Cross Roads Shopping Center.

Alumnus Bille Hogart examines a jar of pickles while Bill McDowell shows us a tray of that tempting Mario's pizza. Just after this picture was taken both Bill's ate that whole tray (the pizza on the tray not the tray itself).

Chivalry sits by eating while Jan Stephens does the heavy work. Actually the pizza at CULMORE PIZZA PANTRY is so good that Carl Davis and Tobin Richter can't put it down. The PIZZA PANTRY also serves meatball sandwiches, submarine sandwiches, cokes, and every variety of pizza.
